

Haley Brown
Haleybrown2@my.unt.edu
214.620.3619

Education

- M.A. History, University of North Texas, Expected graduation May 2020.
Thesis: "The Lynching of Women in Texas, 1885-1926"
Committee: Andrew J. Torget (Chair), J. Todd Moye, and Graham Cox
- B.A. History, English Minor, University of North Texas, August 2018.

Publications

- "Anita Blair" forthcoming in the Handbook of Texas Online, 2019.

Digital Scholarship

- "Uncovering St. John's," Contributor, 2018.
 - <http://omeka.library.unt.edu/s/stjohns/page/welcome>
 - Uncovering St. John's is an in-depth examination of a rural African-American community in Pilot Point, Texas from Reconstruction to the Great Depression. I worked on the "St. John's in Context" portion of the project.
- "Galveston City Company Records," Collaborator, 2018.
 - <https://fromthepage.com/andrewtorget/galveston-city-company-records>
 - Transcription of ledgers containing meeting minutes, proceedings, and other organizational documentation and records for the Galveston City Company, based in Galveston, Texas.

Teaching Assistant Experience

- HIST 2610- US History to 1865
- HIST 2620- US History since 1865

Memberships

- Texas State Historical Association
- Phi Alpha Theta- Alpha Lambda Chapter

Awards

- Portal to Texas History Research Fellowship, 2019.