

Steven Green

The Department of History, University of California, Santa Cruz
1156 High Street
Santa Cruz, CA 95064
stgreen@ucsc.edu

EDUCATION

2017-Present	University of California, Santa Cruz Ph.D., History Currently enrolled M.A. Thesis: "Noshing in the Hawkeye State: Food and Foodways in the Construction of Iowa's Jewish Communities, 1880-1940"
2016-2017	Southern New Hampshire University M.A., History M.A. Thesis: "To Lend a Helping Hand: A Comparative Look at Jewish and Italian Ethnic Organizations in Buffalo and New York City, 1870-1924"
2011-2015	California State University, East Bay B.A., History

FELLOWSHIPS AND GRANTS

2019	Organization of American Historians Conference Workshop Grant
2018	YIVO Uriel Weinreich Program in Yiddish Language, Literature, and Culture Tuition Grant
2018	The Humanities Institute Summer Research Fellowship
2018	University of California, Santa Cruz Graduate Student Association Travel Grant
2017-2018	University of California Regents Fellowship

RESEARCH INTERESTS

U.S. Jewish history; Immigration and Ethnic Studies; Jewish Immigration; Jewish Foodways; Midwestern history; 19th/20th century U.S. history; Cultural history; Interdisciplinary Food Studies

TEACHING ASSISTANTSHIP/TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Spring 2019	History 76 - The Holocaust
Winter 2019	History 100 - Historical Skills and Methods
Fall 2018	History 70B - History of Modern Europe
Spring 2018	History 2A - The World to 1500
	Cowell 89 - Scholars Program/Faculty Research Colloquium - Reader, Entire Quarter
Winter 2018	History 190R - Research in the History of American Religions - Guest Lecturer, One Class - "Crypto-Jews in Early America"
Fall 2017	History 113C - Women and American Religious Culture

LANGUAGES

Yiddish (Basic reading and writing proficiency)

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

2018-Present	Association for the Study of Food and Society
2017-Present	Organization of American Historians
2017-Present	Immigration and Ethnic History Society