

Malik Ismail Ali Raymond

239 Pierce Street Apt. M, West Lafayette, IN | 912-541-3943 | raymondm@purdue.edu

Education:

Spring 2017

Georgia Southern University

B.A. Honors in History

Minor: Writing

Honors Thesis: "Gloria Anzaldúa's El Mundo Zurdo: The Necessity of a Historical Assessment"

Awards:

Purdue University

2018

Paul and Eslanda Roberson International Studies Award (2018)

2017

College of Liberal Arts Purdue Doctoral Fellowship (2017-Present)

Georgia Southern University

2015-2016

Jack N. and Addie D. Averitt Foundations Scholarship in History (2015-16)

Michael E. Shaw Scholarship in History (2015-16)

Georgia Southern University Honors Program Study Abroad Scholarship (2016)

Eagles Abroad Stipend (2016)

Spanish Travel Scholarship (2016)

Related Experiences:

Purdue University

March-April 2018

Presented "A Colored Agency: Mary Seacole as "Colonial Subject" vs Sarah Josepha Hale as "Colonial Subjugator" at the AAIHS (African American Intellectual Historical Society) at Brandeis University in March 2018, and the Purdue American Studies Symposium in April 2018

February 2018

Co-Presented "Collaborations and Local Impacts: Cultivating Leaders of Indiana Program" at the 2018 Indiana Campus Connect Service Engagement Summit in Indianapolis, Indiana

November 2017-Present

Co-Organizer of Cultivating Leaders of Indiana Program (CLIP) (2017-Present)

- Co-led seven workshops to prospective college students in Frankfort, Indiana; provided resources to better connect with Purdue faculty; organized campus visit to where those students visited Purdue's campus so sit-in classes, speak with undergraduate and graduate students via a university panel

November 2017- April 2018

Assistant at Virginia Kelly Karnes Archives at Stewart Library

- Uploaded a few thousand microfilm of MA theses and PhD dissertations onto Microsoft Excel, and re-packaged and re-assigned them to their proper fields as well on behalf of operations manager Gene Ann Fausett

Georgia Southern University

April 2017

Presented "Gloria Anzaldúa's El Mundo Zurdo: The Necessity of a Historical Assessment" at Southern Regional Honors Conference (Asheville, NC), Georgia Southern University CURIO (Center for Undergraduate Research and Intellectual Opportunities Symposium, and the Georgia Southern University Honors Research Symposium (Statesboro, GA)

September 2016-May 2017

Officer of CLASS (College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences) Student Advisory Board

- Oversaw and reported student's issues and recommendation for improvement in History Department, Co-organized CURIO Symposium and Georgia Southern University Honors Research Symposium

May-June 2016

Study Abroad Student in EleBaires Language School, Buenos Aires, Argentina

October 2015-May 2017

Officer of Phi Alpha Theta Honors Society, Georgia Southern branch

- Organized fundraisers, recruiting events, campus speaker events, officer meetings, and worked alongside professors to promote the organization to potential members

Languages:

English – Native Speaker

Spanish – Read and Speak at Intermediate levels

Memberships:

Purdue American Studies Graduate Student Organization (2017-Present)

Phi Alpha Theta Honors Society (2015-Present)

ASGSO Secretary (2018-Present)