

BARRY C. BINDER

218 E. Columbia Street, Colorado Springs, CO 80907

972-822-7575 | bbinder@uccs.edu

CURRICULUM VITAE

EDUCATION

2017-current

M.A. – History (in progress)

University of Colorado, Colorado Springs

Areas of Concentration: Modern United States and the American West

Focus: Migration, cultural, social, and transnational history

Research Projects: Historiography of the Cripple Creek Miners Strikes (1894/1904); Scottish migrants in Colorado Springs; evolution of Arts and Crafts architecture in the American West; transnational construction of Chinese migrant identity.

1996

B.S. – History (Honors)

Illinois State University

Minor: Political Science

AWARDS

2019

Best Graduate Paper – 2019 Colorado Regional Phi Alpha Theta Conference

2019

Best Graduate Presentation - 2019 Colorado Regional Phi Alpha Theta Conference

2018-2019

Graduate Student Research Fellowship - University of Colorado, Colorado Springs

2018

Graduate Travel Award - University of Colorado, Colorado Springs

2018

Graduate Travel Grant - University of Colorado, Colorado Springs

1996

Lucy Lucile Tasher Best Senior in History Award - Illinois State University

1995

Lucy Lucile Tasher Scholarship in History - Illinois State University

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

2019 – current

Graduate Teaching Assistant – to Dr. Yang Wei in “Asian History: China”

University of Colorado, Colorado Springs

Responsible for grading and providing feedback on weekly summary papers, meet with and/or correspond with students upon demand for tutoring and assistance.

1996

Graduate Teaching Assistant – to Dr. Luis Perez in “History of China”

Illinois State University

Collaborated on curriculum development, met with students during weekly office hours for tutoring and feedback on course material and term papers.

1995

Undergraduate Teaching Assistant – to Dr. Mohamad Tavakoli-Targhi in “History of Islam”

Illinois State University

Led student workgroup discussions and study sessions, assisted with grading written and oral summaries, met with students upon demand for tutoring and assistance.

PRESENTATIONS

- 2019 “MacLaren, Douglas, and Hetherington: The Continuity and Evolution of Arts & Crafts Architecture in Colorado Springs.” (scheduled)
16th Annual Pikes Peak Regional History Symposium (Colorado Springs, CO)
- 2019 “In My Ain Countrie: Thomas MacLaren, Walter Farquhar Douglas, and Thompson Duncan Hetherington; a transnational case study of Scottish migration at the turn of the 20th century.”
2019 Colorado Regional Phi Alpha Theta Conference (Gunnison, CO)
- 2018 “Labor, Capital, and Violence: Historiography of The Cripple Creek Miners Strikes of 1894 and 1904.”
2018 Colorado Regional Phi Alpha Theta Conference (Pueblo, CO)
- 1995 “The Veiled Alternative in Uzbekistan.”
4th Annual Conference on Rhetoric and the Historical Imagination (Normal, IL)

RELATED EXPERIENCE

- 2019-current Commissioner
City of Colorado Springs Historic Preservation Board
Responsibilities include surveying and inventorying historically significant structures, making recommendations to Council for historic designation, review and decide on applications for rehabilitation, destruction or alteration of historic structures, perform community outreach on historic preservation initiatives, prepare and maintain the city’s historic preservation plan.
- 2015-2017 Secretary and Historian
Winnetka Heights Historic District (Dallas, TX)
Responsible for composing and storing monthly meeting minutes, maintaining neighborhood archive and historical material, and researching and composing home histories.

MEMBERSHIPS

- Golden Key National Honors Society
Phi Alpha Theta
University of Colorado, Colorado Springs Graduate Student Association
Colorado Springs Historic Preservation Alliance