

Adam Waters
97 Avon Street #2
New Haven, CT 06511
(954) 234-8200
adam.waters@yale.edu

EDUCATION

Ph.D. Student, U.S. History, Yale University, 2018-

A.B., History, Brown University, May 2015

PUBLICATIONS

With E.J. Dionne Jr. "Is Anti-Intellectualism Ever Good for Democracy?" Dissent, Winter 2019

"Discursive Resistance: Counter-Hegemonic Pan Americanisms in the Early Cold War." Brown University History Department Undergraduate Thesis, April 2015

AWARDS AND FELLOWSHIPS

John Thomas Memorial Award for Best History Department Undergraduate Thesis, Brown University, May 2015

Skidmore Family and Friends Thesis Prize for Best Thesis in Latin American Studies, Brown University, May 2015

Phi Beta Kappa, inducted February 2014

DEPARTMENTAL SERVICE

Member, Yale History Department Graduate Student Advisory Committee, 2018-

LANGUAGE SKILLS

English – Native

Spanish – Advanced

Portuguese – Intermediate

ADDITIONAL PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Research Analyst, The Brookings Institution, August 2016 – June 2018

Legislative Assistant, Religious Action Center of Reform Judaism, August 2015 – August 2016

Project Coordinator, Brown University Opening the Archives Project, January 2013 – June 2014

RESEARCH AREAS

Twentieth-century U.S. and Latin America, U.S.-Mexico borderlands, religion and politics, migration, social movements